

Pictures and Press Cuttings

wotton-under-edge
chamber of trade
www.wotton.biz

If you ever find a Press Cutting that isn't here then it would be appreciated if you could send a copy of it to Trevor Mason at undertheedgemedia@gmail.com. Many thanks.

Wotton Chamber has Pudsey breakfast

Picture Caption 1 – Early morning supporters of the BBC Children in Need appeal at the Wotton-under-Edge Chamber of Trade's Pudsey breakfast

Picture Caption 2 – Staff at the Singing Teapot cafe who dressed up for the Wotton-under-Edge Chamber of Trade’s Pudsey breakfast. Left to right are Jackie Melville-Brown, Gloria Dayman and Michele Stutter

For further information contact:
Trevor Mason

Tel: +44(0)1453 842655
Mob : +44 (0) 785 4471109
Email:underthedgedmedia@gmail.com

Pudsey's fry-up

HELP raise money for children in need by having a delicious fry-up for breakfast. Wotton Chamber of Trade has organised a Pudsey breakfast with McQuiggs, the Singing Teapot, Wotton Coffee Shop and the Swan Inn, which will all serve a breakfast on Friday, November 20, from 7.30am to 9.30am. The cost is £5.95 or £3.95 if you dress in your pyjamas (bacon rolls available) and proceeds will go to Children in Need.

CHILDREN IN NEED 2009

Residents across the area put in a fantastic effort for this year's Children in Need with plenty of wonderful fundraising activities. Here are three of your stories...

Forking out to see bosses in frocks

DIRECTORS at Renishaw dressed in drag for Children in Need

STAFF at Renishaw put their hands in the pockets to see their bosses dress in drag to raise money for Children in Need. Eight divisional directors at the Wotton-based firm dressed as women for the day after promising to do it if their employees could raise £1,000.

In fact, the staff raised more than £3,000, which was matched by the company, making a total of over £6,000.

Rolling up early for a hearty breakfast

PEOPLE walking into Wotton on Friday were surprised to see people still in their pyjamas, stumbling around looking for breakfast.

But it was all in aid of a good cause as the Wotton Chamber of Trade Pudsey Breakfast got under way.

The Swann Hotel, the Wotton Coffee Shop, the Singing Teapot and McQuiggs opened their doors at 7.30am to cook a full English breakfast for adults and a bacon roll and drink for children. Anyone who showed up in their pyjamas or fancy dress got a discount.

Chamber president Alex Wilkinson said: "This is just the sort of thing we want to pull the town's traders together. We have raised just over £400 and I would like to thank everyone who contributed."

STAFF at the Singing Teapot cafe who dressed up for the Wotton-under-Edge Chamber of Trade's Pudsey breakfast, Jackie Melville-Brown, Gloria Dayman and Michele Stutter

Colourful costumes and kind customers

STAFF at a pharmacy in Thornbury donned traditional Nigerian costumes to raise money for the annual BBC Children in Need appeal. Staff at Lloyds Pharmacy in High Street wore the outfits on Friday and raised £225 in donations from their customers. The company said it wanted to thank all those who had helped raise the total.